SPICES BOARD

EDUCATIONAL STIPEND TO CHILDREN OF CARDAMOM ESTATE WORKERS 2014-15

The Spices Board, in keeping with the provisions in Spices Board Act 1986, has been implementing schemes for the welfare of the Cardamom Estate Workers. The scheme for the grant of educational stipend to the children of cardamom plantation workers has been one among them.

Primary education is free in all the cardamom growing states. The purpose of the educational stipend scheme is to encourage education beyond the school level.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Eligibility

1. The Scheme shall be operated within the budgetary provision made for this purpose.
2. The children of workers and staff employed in Cardamom Estates Registered/applied for registration are eligible for stipend provided parent's income (total emoluments) do not exceed Rs.3000/- per month per parent. If a parent was unable to attend the work due to protracted illness a certificate from the estate owner that the worker was unable to work due to the above reason even though he was in the regular roll should be produced along with a Medical Certificate in respect of the Estate worker.
3. The applicant should not be in receipt of any other grant, stipend or scholarship.

This restriction shall not be applicable in the case of SC/ST/OBC.

If a recipient of the stipend happens to study in the same class for more than one year consequent to his/her inability to appear for the examination in the first year due to illness, such students are eligible for stipend during the second year also on production of satisfactory evidence.

4. Only two children of a worker/staff member of the estate shall be eligible for stipend under this scheme.
5. The applicant's father/mother should have a minimum 120 days' work during the period from 1-4-2013 to 31-3-2014 in a cardamom estate registered/ applied for registration.

Quantum of stipend
